

THE SPRING SACRIFICE OF MARZANNA

Matthaei Botanical Gardens

Saturday, March 7, 2026

Procession: 2:00pm

Release your burdens! They'll flow downstream with Marzanna!

Artist & graduate student Michelle Cieloszczyk invites folks to reinterpret a thousand-year-old Slavic cultural tradition about Marzanna (the goddess of winter, disease, and death). Together we will release effigies into Willow Pond, accompanied by Polish folk music.
